

Week 1 -- logbook

- During this week we formed a group and worked together to come up with a project idea.
- As a part of project discussion we were suppose to think about the human activity that we want to monitor.
- Woke on the devices/resources required to monitor these human activities and also the essential functionalities of the product.
- Also, tried to analyse the issues that may arise during the project development.